King's Lynn Golf Club Hosted their annual Seniors' Open on Monday 21st May 2018 in glorious weather. It once again was a very popular event, with 100 players representing 36 different clubs taking part. For thirty seven competitors it was their first time entering this competition. The event was played off the white tees and the competitors found the course challenging with only two breaking par. The overall winner was Tony Canning from Costessey Golf Club with a score of 38 Pts. He beat David Tingey from Bury St Edmunds Golf Club who was the winner of Division B 14 – 24 Hcp) with a score of 37 Pts. The winner of Division A ( (0 -13 Hcp) was John Love from Dunston Hall Golf Club with a score of 36 Pts.

In his speech Tony complimented the event, the catering and he thought the course was in excellent condition.
