

RABBITS SECTION – INTERNAL COMPETITIONS

Saturday Competitions

Sam Meldrum. An individual medal competition played off white tees, full handicap.

Rabbits Silver Salver. Our oldest competition first played in 1953. Individual stableford, played off white tees, full handicap.

Club Captains Prize. Individual stableford, played off white tees, full handicap.

Rabbits Captains Trophy. Individual stableford, played off white tees, full handicap.

Rabbits Presidents Trophy. Individual stableford, played off white tees, full handicap.

Knockout Competitions

The Rabbits Section runs 3 knock out competitions each year.

The Champion Rabbit (Stansfield Cup). – This is an individual knock out match play competition, full handicap difference. Play off the yellow tees. Losers in the first round are automatically entered into the Annual Plate Competition, see below.

The Annual Plate Competition. – As above, entry is limited to players losing in the first round of the Champion Rabbit and is played using the same rules.

The Warren Fourball Trophy. – This competition is open to two man teams and is played as a fourball better ball knockout. Matches are played using 90% handicap difference from the player with the lowest handicap. Again, play off the yellow tees.

Other Competitions

Rabbits Away Day. Individual stableford, played off yellow tees, full handicap.

Rabbits Home Day. Individual stableford, played off yellow tees, full handicap.

The Vic Grant Trophy. For the most consistent rabbit golfer of the year. Points awarded for the top ten places, 10 points for first place down to 1 for tenth, in each of the Saturday competitions plus Home Day. Three points awarded to the winner of each match in the Champion Rabbit and Annual Plate Competition.

Hining Putter Trophy. A putting competition, varied format, played on Home Day.

Stan Iveson Eclectic. An eclectic competition taking, for each member, the best score for each hole, 1 to 18, from the Saturday Competitions.
