

So, what's new?

2019 will see the introduction of another form of stroke play called maximum score. This will be an option available to Committees in addition to:

- the basic form of stroke play where a player must hole out at every hole, or else is disqualified, and
- the Stableford form of play where a point scoring system is used.