Notes regarding Application for Membership

1. The application should be proposed and seconded by members who must be personally known to the Applicant.
2. The Proposer and Secunder are responsible for introducing the Applicant to the Club and must ensure that the Applicant is instructed in the Rules and etiquette of golf and the Rules and Bye Laws of Holme Hall Golf Club, including the Dress Code.
3. If the Applicant is a beginner, the Proposer and Secunder must supervise their introduction to competitive play and make sure that they do not inconvenience other competitors.
4. Applicants who do not have a proposer and secunder may tender a letter of introduction from their current or previous club instead.
5. Applicants who do not have a proposer and secunder and have not previously been a member of a golf club should enclose a letter with the application form, advising of this.
6. Details of applications for membership are posted on the Club notice board for at last 7 days prior to the Applicant being interviewed for membership.
7. To qualify for Junior Membership, applicants must be aged between 11 and 17 years.
8. No new member shall enjoy the benefits of the Club until his or her Entrance Fees (if any) and Subscription has been paid.
9. By completing and signing this form, applicants explicitly consent to Holme Hall Club obtaining, recording and holding their personal data (including sensitive data) solely for Club purposes either on its computer or in an organised manual filing system. This information may include the applicant's full name and address and where applicable, their telephone and fax numbers and e-mail address. The applicant consents to the Club disclosing their full name and address to other members. This disclosure may also include the applicant's telephone and fax numbers and e-mail address, unless the applicant has ticked the box below.

Permit only partial disclosure of the means of contact to other members.
Not to include telephone or fax numbers or e-mail address.
