tele. 01159333000; option 2.
15. The Committee of The Radcliffe-on-Trent Golf Club reminds visitors to respect our Dress Rules.

On the course: Only smart clothing including that which is normally available from Professional shops is allowed on the course. Blue denim wear, 'T' shirts, trainers, tracksuits, rugby/football style shirts and cargo/combat style trousers with baggy (bulbous) side pockets are not permitted. Tailored shorts are allowed and should be worn with sports socks. Beach shorts and 'cargo/combat' shorts with baggy (bulbous) side pockets are not acceptable. Trousers should not be tucked into socks on the course unless covered by waterproof trousers. Caps are to be worn as designed.

In the clubhouse: Members, guests and visitors can wear smart clean casual clothing whilst in the clubhouse unless a dress code is specified for an event. Staff and officers of the club have discretion to refuse entry or service to anyone deemed to be wearing inappropriate, soiled, wet or dirty clothing. Shorts are not permitted in the dining area after 19.30.

16. Bad weather, Dangerous conditions, Course unplayable: Under these conditions play may be suspended. If the course remains unplayable for more than one hour, play will be abandoned. If 75% of competitors have completed their round the result will stand. One hour and 75% are the recommended criteria but the Committee reserve the right to amend these after considering all factors on the day. Their decision will be final.
