

Social Notes – from Malcolm Johnson

Sunday 6th January sees our traditional ice-breaker event to blow away the post-holiday blues in the form of a New Year's 12-hole Texas Scramble, followed by an early supper. Look out for the sign-up sheets in the corridor for this event.

Our second quiz night of the winter comes up on Friday 18th January when Phil will be stretching our brains and memories once more with another of his unique quiz's.

Saturday 16th February is the first of our musical events for 2019 so keep an eye out for more details about this event, then as we roll into March, make a note in your diaries for Friday the 8th March for our last quiz of the winter season.

Later that month, on Saturday 16th March, we have the Captain's Farewell Party and as you can imagine with our current captain Pete Dore, it will definitely be something different.

As I write our incoming captain, Mark Willcox, is still working on ideas for his year as far as social events are concerned, so keep an eye on the notice boards so as not to miss the opportunity to join in the fun.

Best wishes for 2019 from all on the Social Committee.
