6.1.2 by such means (including by power of attorney);

6.1.3 to such an extent;

6.4 The CEC may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

7. Committees

7.1 Committees to which the CEC delegates any of its powers must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the Articles which govern the taking of decisions by the CEC.

7.2 The CEC may make rules of procedure for all or any committees.

8. Directors to take decisions collectively

Any decision of the CEC must be either a majority decision or a decision taken in accordance with Article 9.

9. Decisions

- 9.1 A decision of the CEC is taken in accordance with this Article when all eligible Directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.
- 9.2 Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible Director or to which each eligible Director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.
- 9.3 References in this Article to eligible Directors are to Directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a meeting of the CEC.
- 9.4 A decision may not be taken in accordance with this Article if the eligible Directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

10. Calling a meeting of the CEC

- 10.1 Any Director may call a meeting of the CEC by giving notice of the meeting to the Directors or by directing the County Secretary to give such notice.
- 10.2 Notice of any meeting of the CEC must indicate:
- 10.2.1 its proposed date and time;
- 10.2.2 where it is to take place; and
- 10.2.3 if it is anticipated that Directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.
- 10.3 Notice of a meeting of the CEC must be given to each Director, but need not be in writing. A Director who is absent from Great Britain shall be entitled to notice of a meeting if he or she has provided a valid email address.
- 10.4 Notice of a meeting of the CEC need not be given to Directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting by giving notice to that effect to the CEC not more than seven days after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held it shall be deemed to have been given before the meeting when considering the validity of the meeting or of any business conducted at it.

10.5 Without prejudice to the foregoing, the CEC shall meet at such times and at such frequency as they consider fit from time to time. The CEC shall meet not less than three times per calendar year but, subject to that, the actual number of meetings shall be determined by the CEC.

11. Participation in meetings of the CEC

11.1 Subject to the Articles, Directors participate in a meeting of the CEC, or part of a meeting of the CEC, when:

11.1.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles, and 11.1.2 they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

11.2 In determining whether Directors are participating in a meeting of the CEC, it is irrelevant where any Director is or how they communicate with each other.

11.3 If all the Directors participating in a meeting of the CEC are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

12. Quorum for Board Meetings

12.1 At a meeting of the CEC, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

12.2 The quorum for meetings of the CEC may be fixed from time to time by a decision of the CEC but it must never be less than four.

12.3 Subject to Article 12.4, the CEC may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body.

12.4 If the total number of Directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the Directors must not take any decision other than a decision to call a general meeting so as to enable the members to appoint additional Directors.

12.5 Subject to Article 12.6, if a question arises at a meeting of the CEC as to the right of a Director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the President whose ruling in relation to any Director other than the President is to be final and conclusive.

12.6 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the President, the question is to be decided by decision of the Directors at that meeting, for which purpose the President is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

13. Chairing of meetings of the CEC

13.1 The President shall chair meetings of the CEC.

13.2 If the President is either ineligible to take part in all of a meeting of the CEC or is not participating in a meeting of the CEC within 10 minutes of the time at which it was due to start, those members of the CEC present and participating shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

14. Casting vote

14.1 If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the chairman of the meeting of the CEC has a casting vote.

14.2 But this does not apply if, in accordance with the Articles, the chairman or other Director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

15. Conflicts of interest

15.1 If a proposed decision of the CEC is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company in which a Director is interested, that Director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes save where Article 15.2 applies.

15.2 The prohibition under Article 15.1 shall not apply when:

- 15.2.1 the CEC approves the Director counting towards the quorum and voting on the transaction or arrangement notwithstanding such interest;
 - 15.2.2 the Director's interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest; or
 - 15.2.3 the Director's conflict of interest arises from a permitted cause.
- 15.3 For the purposes of Article 15.2, the following are "permitted causes":
- 15.3.1 a guarantee, security or indemnity given, or to be given, by or to a Director in respect of an obligation incurred by or on behalf of the Company or any of its subsidiaries (if any);
 - 15.3.2 subscription, or an agreement to subscribe, for securities of the Company or any of its subsidiaries (if any), or to underwrite, sub-underwrite, or guarantee subscription for any such securities; and
 - 15.3.3 arrangements pursuant to which benefits are made available to employees and Directors or former employees and Directors of the Company or any of its subsidiaries (if any) which do not provide special benefits for Directors or former Directors.
- 15.4 For the purposes of this Article 15, references to proposed decisions and decision-making processes include any meeting of the CEC or part of a meeting of the CEC.
- 15.5 Subject to Article 15.7, if a question arises at a meeting of the CEC or of a committee of the CEC as to the right of a Director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose ruling in relation to any Director other than himself is to be final and conclusive.
- 15.6 Where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment of two or more Directors to employment with the Company or any body corporate in which the Company is interested the proposals may be divided and considered in relation to each Director separately and (provided he or she is not for another reason precluded from voting) each of the Directors concerned shall be entitled to vote and be counted in the quorum in respect of each resolution except that concerning his own appointment.

- 15.7 If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the chairman of the meeting, the question is to be decided by a decision of the Directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman of the meeting is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.
- 15.8 A Director may vote, and count towards the quorum, in regard to any transaction or arrangement in which he or she has, or can have, a direct or indirect conflict of interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict with the interests of the Company only where such matter has been authorised by the CEC in accordance with Section 175 of the 2006 Act.
- 15.9 The Company may by ordinary resolution suspend or relax to any extent, either generally or in respect of any particular matter, any provision of the Articles prohibiting a Director from voting at a meeting of the CEC or a committee formed under Article 6.

16. Records of decisions to be kept

The CEC must ensure that the Company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every appointment by the CEC and of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the CEC (and all committees) and by the Company at general meeting.

22. Other Officers

22.1 The CEC shall meet and nominate such candidates for the posts of Treasurer, County Secretary and Junior Secretary as in its discretion it thinks appropriate for approval in accordance with Article 22.2 by a simple majority at each Annual General Meeting.

22.2 The Treasurer, County Secretary and Junior Secretary shall each be elected and assume office at the Annual General Meeting in each year and shall hold office until the next Annual General Meeting after his election.

22.3 The Treasurer, County Secretary and Junior Secretary shall each be directors by virtue of their office and shall have such rights and privileges as these Articles the Rules and the CEC shall from time to time prescribe.

22.4 The CEC may meet and as in its discretion it thinks appropriate may appoint such number of Appointed Directors (subject to a maximum of 3 at any one time) as it thinks fit. Appointed Directors must each be separately elected and shall serve from the meeting of the CEC at which their appointment is made to the end of the first meeting of the CEC following the next annual general meeting when they may be reappointed. Without in any way fettering its discretion the CEC shall consider whether it is appropriate to appoint the most recent former Immediate Past President as an Appointed Director.

23. Casual Vacancies

23.1 A casual vacancy amongst any of the elected Officers shall be filled by the CEC provided always that the person appointed by the CEC to fill the casual vacancy shall only hold office until the next annual general meeting.

23.2 A vacancy in the office of an Appointed Director may be filled by the CEC pursuant to its powers under Article 22.4.

24. Employees

Subject to the provisions of the Articles, the CEC may appoint employees to manage the business and operations of the Company for such terms at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they may think fit and such employees appointed may be removed by them. While such employee may have a different title within the Company, for the purposes of these Articles and the Rules the most senior employee shall be referred to as the County Secretary.

BECOMING AND CEASING TO BE A MEMBER

25. Applications for and conditions of membership

25.1 The subscribers to the Memorandum of Association of the Company; the further voting members of the unincorporated association known as The Norfolk County Golf Union as at the date of incorporation; and such other persons as are admitted to membership by the CEC in accordance with the Articles (and any applicable Rules) shall be the Voting Members of the Company.

25.2 No person or body shall become a Voting Member of the Company other than a Golf Club within the County which has:

25.2.1 completed an application for membership in such form as required by the CEC, and 25.2.2 acknowledged in writing its obligations under Article 4.

and in respect of which the CEC has approved its application.

25.3 Every corporation and unincorporated association which is admitted as a Voting Member may exercise such powers as are prescribed by Part 9 of the Act.

25.4 All members as at the date of incorporation of the unincorporated association known as the Norfolk County Golf Union other than its Voting Members, and such persons as are admitted as Non-Voting Members in accordance with the Rules, shall be the Non-Voting Members.

26. Conditions of membership

- 26.1 All Members shall be subject to the Rules.
- 26.2 The Members shall pay such affiliation fees as shall be set by the CEC from time to time.

27. Termination of Membership

- 27.1 A Member may withdraw from Membership of the Company by giving notice in accordance with the Rules. Membership shall not be transferable in any event and shall cease immediately on death, dissolution or any other circumstance prescribed in the Rules or on the failure of the Member to comply or to continue to comply with any condition of Membership set out in the Articles or the Rules.
- 27.2 A Member may be expelled as a Member through the following process:
 - 27.2.1 the CEC resolves by a simple majority of all of the Directors (not just a majority of those attending and voting but excluding any Directors conflicted from voting) that such expulsion is in the interests of the Company;
 - 27.2.2 notice of such resolution shall be served on the affected Member. Such notice shall stipulate a date (which shall be not less than seven days after the deemed date of receipt of such notice) by which notice of appeal must be received by the Company failing which the affected Member shall be expelled on such date;
 - 27.2.3 if a notice of appeal is received then a meeting of the CEC shall be convened (on not less than 14 days' notice to each Director and the affected Member) at which meeting the affected Member shall be entitled to present a statement in its defence (verbally and/or in writing);
 - 27.2.4 at such meeting and following consideration of such statement (if any) the CEC shall vote (by a simple majority of those attending and voting) on whether to uphold its earlier decision to expel. Such decision shall be notified to the affected Member at such meeting (assuming it is represented at the meeting) or by notice in writing (if it is not represented at the meeting). Should the CEC uphold its decision then the affected Member shall (subject to Article 27.2.5) be expelled with immediate effect;

- 27.2.5 the affected Member may appeal to a general meeting of the Company by serving notice of its appeal on the Company (such notice must be received within seven days of the date of expulsion). Such appeal shall be heard at the next general meeting of the Company (subject to there being sufficient time to include the same in the notice of the general meeting). The affected Member shall be entitled to present a statement in its defence (verbally and/or in writing) to the general meeting;
- 27.2.6 at such general meeting the expulsion shall be confirmed or overturned by a simple majority vote of those Voting Members attending and voting. Should the expulsion be overturned then the affected Member shall be reinstated with immediate effect. Should the expulsion be confirmed then the affected Member shall pay the additional cost to the Company of such hearing on demand.
- 27.3 Any Member whose annual affiliation fee is more than six months in arrears shall be deemed to have resigned as a Member unless the CEC otherwise decides.
- 27.4 Any person ceasing to be a Member forfeits all rights in relation to and claims on the Company, its property and funds and has no right to the return of any part of his affiliation fees.

ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

28. Annual General Meetings

- 28.1 The Company shall hold a general meeting in every calendar year as its annual general meeting at such time and place as may be determined by the CEC and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it, provided that so long as the Company holds its first annual general meeting within 18 months after its incorporation it need not hold it in the calendar year of its incorporation.
- 28.2 The annual general meeting shall be held for the following purposes:
- 28.2.1 to receive from the CEC the Company's financial statements;
- 28.2.2 to receive from the CEC a report of the activities of the Company since the previous annual general meeting;
- 28.2.3 to appoint the accountants who prepare the Company's statutory accounts;

28.2.4 to receive a report from the President;

28.2.5 as and when appropriate to elect the Officers; and 28.2.6 to transact such other business as may be brought before it.

28.3 All general meetings, other than annual general meetings, shall be called general meetings.

29. Calling general meetings

29.1 The CEC may call general meetings and, on the requisition of three Voting Members, shall forthwith proceed to convene a general meeting for a date not later than six weeks after receipt of the requisition. Such requisition must state the object of the meeting and include one or more resolutions to be put to the meeting. If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient Directors to call a general meeting, the County Secretary or any Director may call a general meeting.

29.2 At least 14 clear days' notice in writing of every general meeting shall be given to such persons as are under the Articles or under the 2006 Act entitled to receive such notices from the Company.

29.3 The notice shall specify the place, the day and the hour of the meeting and in the case of special business, the general nature of the business. All business transacted at a general meeting, and all that is transacted at an annual general meeting, with the exception of the business set out in Article 28.2, shall be deemed special business.

29.4 A Voting Member may propose a resolution (or resolutions) to be considered at a general meeting. Such proposed resolutions must be seconded by another Voting Member and made in writing addressed to the County Secretary and be received not less than 35 days before the General Meeting at which it is to be proposed.

29.5 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of such notice by, any person entitled to receive notice thereof, shall not invalidate any proceedings of, or resolution passed at, any meeting.

30. Attendance and speaking at general meetings

- 30.1 Each Voting Member shall be entitled to send one representative to a general meeting who shall be entitled to speak at such meeting.
- 30.2 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.
- 30.3 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when:
- 30.3.1 that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and
- 30.3.2 that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.
- 30.4 The CEC may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.
- 30.5 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other.
- 30.6 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

31. Quorum for general meetings

- 31.1 Ten per cent of Voting Members entitled to attend and vote present in person shall be a quorum.
- 31.2 No business other than the appointment of a chairman of the meeting (if necessary) is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it do not constitute a quorum.

32. Chairing general meetings

- 32.1 The President shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so.

32.2 If the President is not willing to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start:

32.2.1 the Directors present, or

32.2.2 (if no Directors are present), the meeting, must appoint an Officer or representative of a Voting Member to chair the meeting, and the appointment of the chairman of the meeting must be the first business of the meeting.

32.3 The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this Article is referred to as “the chairman of the meeting”.

33. Attendance and speaking by Directors and non-members

33.1 Directors may attend and speak (but not vote) at general meetings.

33.2 The chairman of the meeting may permit other persons who are not Voting Members or representatives of Voting Members of the company to attend and speak (but not vote) at a general meeting.

34. Adjournment

34.1 If within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start the persons attending a general meeting do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the chairman of the meeting must adjourn it.

34.2 The chairman of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if:

34.2.1 the meeting consents to an adjournment, or

34.2.2 it appears to the chairman of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.

34.3 The chairman of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.

34.4 When adjourning a general meeting, the chairman of the meeting must:

- 34.4.1 either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the Directors, and
- 34.4.2 have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.
- 34.5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the Company must give at least seven clear days' notice of it:
 - 34.5.1 to the same persons to whom notice of the Company's general meetings is required to be given, and
 - 34.5.2 containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.
- 34.6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

35. Voting: general

- 35.1 Every Voting Member shall be entitled to receive notice of and to send one representative to attend a general meeting and such representative shall be entitled to cast one vote. Such representative shall be entitled to attend in person or by proxy.
- 35.2 Scrutineers may be appointed to assist in determining the outcome of any vote.
- 35.3 A resolution put to the vote at a general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded in accordance with the Articles.
- 35.4 In the case of an equality of votes the President shall not have a casting vote.
- 35.5 Unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the President that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the Minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

35.6 A resolution may be put to the vote of the Voting Members by way of written resolution in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Acts.

36. Errors and disputes

36.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid. Any such objection must be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision is final.

36.2 If any votes are given or counted at a general meeting which shall afterwards be discovered to be improperly given or counted, the same shall not affect the validity of any resolution or thing passed or done at the said meeting, unless the objection to such votes be taken at the same meeting, and not in that case unless the chairman of the meeting shall then and there decide that the error is of sufficient magnitude to affect such resolution or thing.

37. Postal Ballot

37.1 The CEC may decide, in advance of a general meeting, to call a postal ballot in respect of an election which would otherwise be put to the vote at the general meeting. If there is to be a postal ballot, the details of the resolution and voting papers shall be sent at such time as the CEC shall prescribe to the Voting Members. Voting papers must be returned to the County Secretary in a sealed envelope by such time as the CEC shall prescribe and shall be opened and counted by such person or persons as the CEC shall decide.

37.2 The result of the postal ballot will be declared at the general meeting at which it would otherwise have been put to the vote by the CEC.

38. Poll votes

38.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded:

38.1.1 in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote, or 38.1.2 at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.

38.2 A poll may be demanded by:

38.2.1 the chairman of the meeting;

38.2.2 the CEC; or

38.2.3 two or more Voting Members having the right to vote on the resolution.

38.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if:

38.3.1 the poll has not yet been taken, and

38.3.2 the chairman of the meeting consents to the withdrawal.

38.4 Polls shall be taken immediately and in such manner as the chairman of the meeting directs.

39. Content of proxy notices

39.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which:

39.1.1 states the name and address of the Member appointing the proxy;

39.1.2 identifies the person appointed to be that Member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;

39.1.3 is signed by or on behalf of the Member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the Directors may determine; and

39.1.4 is delivered to the Company in accordance with the Articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.

39.2 The CEC may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.

39.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

39.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:

- 39.4.1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
- 39.4.2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

40. Delivery of proxy notices

- 40.1 Subject to the restrictions within the Companies Act, the CEC shall stipulate from time to time when, how and where proxy notices should be delivered in respect of any general meeting.
- 40.2 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Company by or on behalf of that person.
- 40.3 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.
- 40.4 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
- 40.5 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

41. Amendments to resolutions

- 41.1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:
 - 41.1.1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 7 days before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chairman of the meeting may determine), and
 - 41.1.2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.

- 41.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if:
- 41.2.1 the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and
 - 41.2.2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.
- 41.3 With the consent of the chairman of the meeting, an amendment may be withdrawn by its proposer at any time before the resolution is voted upon.
- 41.4 If the chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

42. Means of communication to be used

- 42.1 Subject to the Articles, any notice or document to be sent or supplied by or to the Company under the Articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which the 2006 Act provides for documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of the 2006 Act to be sent or supplied by or to the Company.

- 42.5 Any Voting Member described in the register of members by an address not within Great Britain, who shall from time to time give the Company an address within England at which notices may be served upon him, shall be entitled to have notices served upon him at such address, or an address to which notices may be sent using electronic communications, but, save as aforesaid and as provided by the Act, only those Voting Members who are described in the register of members by an address within England shall be entitled to receive notices from the Company.
- 42.6 Any notice, if served by first class (or equivalent) post, shall be deemed to have been served on the day following that on which the letter containing the same is put into the post, and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice was properly addressed and put into the post as a prepaid letter. Any notice, if served by electronic communications, shall be deemed to have been given at the expiration of 48 hours after the time it was sent.

43. No right to inspect accounts and other records

Except as provided by law or authorised by the CEC or an ordinary resolution of the Company, no person is entitled to inspect any of the Company's accounting or other records or documents merely by virtue of being a Member.

44.1.2 any liability incurred by that Director in connection with the activities of the Company or an associated company in its capacity as a trustee of an occupational pension scheme (as defined in Section 235(6) of the 2006 Act),

44.1.3 any other liability incurred by that Director as an officer of the Company or an associated company.
