Notes on Completion

This application/nomination form is in 2 parts and is designed to meet the Club's requirements. Both halves of the form should be completed and capital letters used wherever possible.

The left hand part of the form will be used to post your details on the Club's notice board so that existing members have a chance to see the nominations which are pending – this is a part of the process.

This right hand half of the form is used to collect further information about you which the Club will only use of for Club business (and only when you become a member). In no circumstances will this information be distributed outside the Club.
