Terms and conditions

Lifestyle membership is available once per club year, July 1 – June 30.
It includes 15 rounds of golf with an option to extend this by 5 further rounds.
If the 20 round limit is reached and further play is required, membership upgrade options are available and will account for Lifestyle fees already paid.
Payment in full and in advance, followed by a top-up fee in advance when/if required.
All rounds must be booked through BRS prior to play, and members should report to the Professional before entering the course. Failure to do so may result in termination of the membership.

All applications are subject to acceptance by the Club Committee.
