

HALIFAX BRADLEY HALL GOLF CLUB

DRESS POLICY

In the interest of maintaining a modern, contemporary and forward-thinking approach to standards of dress, Halifax Bradley Hall Golf Club requires that all members, staff, and visitors comply with the following dress code policies and restrictions.

IN THE CLUBHOUSE

Acceptable

On formal occasions, gentlemen may be requested to wear a jacket and tie.

All clothing must be clean and not torn, soiled or wet.

Tailored shorts including smart tailored cargo shorts.

Smart trousers including smart jeans.

Clean, non-spiked golf shoes, trainers, or flip-flops may be worn with or without socks only in the 19th Soft Spike Bar.

Unacceptable

Hats and caps must be removed.

Football/Rugby/Sports related clothing, track or shell suits.

No studded or spiked footwear is allowed anywhere in the Clubhouse except in the locker rooms.

No bare feet or stocking feet are permitted in the lounge and bar areas.

Golfing waterproofs are not permitted in the lounge and bar areas.

Golf shoes should be left in the locker rooms not be left in or outside the foyer or bar areas.

ON THE COURSE

Acceptable

Conventional golf clothing.

Shirts with collars.

Shorts and skirts of a respectable length, must be tailored and worn with long, ankle, or trainer socks.

Golf shirts must be worn inside the waistband at all times. Players may however wear tops outside their trousers or skirts when they are so designed.

Peaked hats or caps may only be worn with the peak to the front.

Metal spike, soft spike or dimple sole golf shoes.

Unacceptable

Jeans, denims or track pants.

Non-tailored shorts.

Collarless shirts, rugby or football style shirts, or hoodies.

Shirts or outer garments with prominent logos or numbers.

Trousers tucked into socks.

Non-golfing footwear is unacceptable on the course.

Any clothing or footwear deemed acceptable on the course or in the clubhouse is also acceptable on the patio area.

Players are reminded that those found not suitably attired will be asked to change or leave the course or clubhouse. Changing in the car park is not permitted except for footwear. It is every member's responsibility to abide by this policy and bring it to the attention of fellow members, guests and visitors in a polite manner.