

CLONMEL GOLF CLUB

Men's Notes

Maher's Londis CYP: A busy weekend saw the qualifiers for the Maher Londis Choose Your Partner being decided. 44 players will take their place in next weekend's singles final. Leading qualifier Andrew Gartlan stayed out on top after last week's action. Featuring in 4 of the 8 qualifiers including two wins Andrew had two points to spare in the leading qualifier over John Perry. The final will commence on Friday next and run until Sunday. Prizes will be on offer for the overall winner as well as 1st and 2nd in three different categories. So, it's all to play for this weekend. Please note that there is no re-entry into the CYP final.

Tom Lambe Open Singles: Our first singles of 2022 got under way on Saturday with the Tom Lambe Open Singles. A large weekend entry got the singles season off to a flying start. This competition runs until Thursday. It was good to see a good entry in the visitor section and although winter is not fully behind us, I am sure our visitors will be pleased with the general condition that the course is in despite some recent appalling weather.

Tesco Easter Hamper: The Tesco Easter Hamper begins on Friday next and will be played over 15 holes. The competition will run right up until Friday April 8th and is sure to be keenly contested. Thanks to our friends at Tesco for their support.

Junior Golf: Our pro shop sponsored the opening junior competition of the year, and the winner was Adam Cooney playing off a handicap of 3 shooting 25 points for the 12 holes. In 2nd place was Joe Hawkins with 24 points off 10 just seeing off Lennon Foran in a countback. Junior Golf wish to thank David Barry our club pro and his assistant Jack Ahearne for all their work with the juniors.

Changes in the Pro shop: On Sunday next we bid farewell to club Pro David Barry and his assistant Jack Ahearne as they depart for Douglas GC. Men's golf wish to thank David and Jack for the excellent service over the last two years or so and we wish them every success in the future.

We also wish to welcome our new club pro Dylan Burke who takes up the roll officially on April 1st. Dylan is a young pro who is eagerly looking forward to his new role at Clonmel GC. We wish Dylan every success and we know that he will be supported in every way by men's golf and our members.
