

CLONMEL GOLF CLUB

Maurice Fehilly RIP

It is with sadness that we note the tragic passing of our dear member, Maurice Fehilly. Maurice was involved in a fatal road traffic accident on Saturday evening while travelling back from Limerick. While Maurice was a member for over 20 years, he also carried out any carpentry work that was required within the club. We will miss you sadly Maurice and our condolences to his wife Lorraine and family. May he rest in Peace.

Men's Results:

Captains Drive In: The Captains' Drive In took place on New Year's Day with Junior Captain Killian Butler, Ladies Captain Maud Shee and Gent's Captain Pat Quinlan all successfully in getting their drives away from the first tee in front of a large audience. Once again, we wish all three of our Captains the best for 2020.

Recent Results: With some improvement in the weather in recent weeks there was plenty of golf played over the festive period. A club singles attracted a large entry over the Christmas with Simon Kane emerging the winner with a score of 27 points over the 12 holes. On New Year's Day we had the traditional 4-person scramble with the team of Philip Quigley, Tom Duggan, Ian Condon and Michael Allen leading the way on a score of 33.8. The open fourball held over last weekend saw Joe O'Shea and Paddy Ryan in first place on 31 points.

Happy New Year

Wishing all our members and visitors a very Happy New Year.

Ladies Notes:

There was a fantastic turn out for our Captains' Drive-In on New Year's Day. Men's Captain Pat Quinlan, Junior Captain Killian Butler, and our lady captain Maud Shee. Opened procedures with warm drinks upstairs the drive in was followed by a four-team scramble. Ladies winning team was Katherine Morrissey, Mary Quinlan, Mary Howley and Sheila O'Keeffe. There was a great atmosphere in the clubhouse after. Prizegiving, followed by a raffle. Thanks to Martin, Fiona and staff for providing lovely food and drinks.

Fixtures:

12- hole on-going competition continues. Holes 1 to 12.
Fun scramble resuming in mid-January.
