

Mobile Score Input

Going forward the Golf Club is advising everyone to input their own scores for all general play cards and ALL competitions that are Stableford or Medal into 'Howdidido' or using the Scottish Golf app.

Most of you will already have access to 'Howdidido' either via an App on your Mobile phone, computer or your tablet.

If you haven't got either then you will need to download the free app from your App Store and register on 'Howdidido' in order to access the electronic scorecard.

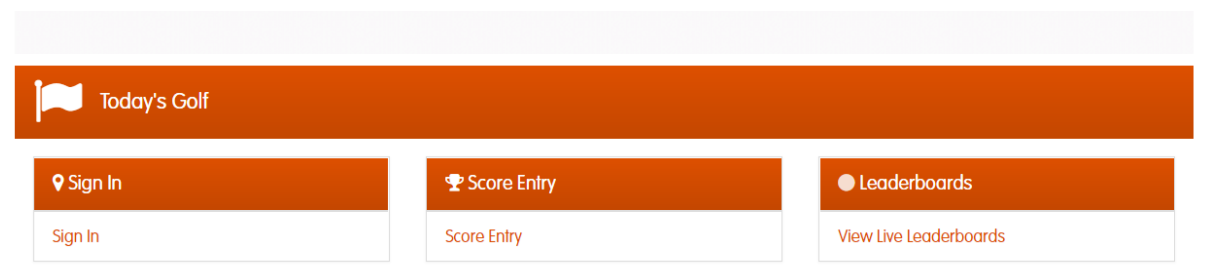

Please be aware when registering it is important that you use the same email address as you have registered with the Golf Club. Web address - <https://www.howdidido.com/>

If you don't have access to be able to input your scores then you will need to email a copy of your score card to 'golf@grantownonspeygc.co.uk'

The process is very simple which is good news for everyone. On arrival at the club sign into the competition via 'Howdidido' click on Today's golf.

Then click on Sign In.

Remember you will still need to pay your entry fee for the competition in the Pro Shop.

Once you have completed your round of golf you must input your scores as soon as possible.

If you don't have the App on your mobile, then you can do it at home, your scores are entered as follows: -

General Play Scores

These must be logged on the Scottish Golf App before going out for your round of Golf. This replaces the 'Extra day score' and will be used to update you handicap index overnight. This App allows you to use scores from any course played in the UK and around the world.

The Scottish Golf App is free to download and use you will need you CHD ID to log in and your email address that you registered with at the Golf Club.

If you have any questions I am here to assist, Lorna L-B, Match and Handicap Secretary.
