

CLONMEL GOLF CLUB

Men's Notes:

Trustees Prize: In favourable if breezy weather the Trustees Prize took place on Saturday last. With the Player of The Year contest heading to an end the 3rd last event produced some super golf. Former POY Paul McGee had a single point to spare over the reigning player of the year Billy Hewitt to win. A wonderful 42 points which included 5 birdies secured the win with Billy also shooting an excellent round on 41 points. Gavin Smyth took the gross with a 1 under par 37 points with Robert Kearney taking 3rd spot on 39 points. The best senior on the day was Timmy O'Dwyer with 34 points. It was a day dominated by the single figure golfer with 11 of the top 15 finishers playing off 9 or less. There was just 5 points separating the top 15. Our thanks to our trustees Anna Moloney, Michael O'Neill and Brendan Binchy for supporting the event.

Bulmers Open Singles Final: With a very wet forecast for Sunday last it was decided to postpone the Bulmers Open Singles final to this coming Saturday. There are 41 players due to line up on Saturday.

Woodlock 12 Holes Series: The final of this series ran last week. Almost all of the qualifiers managed to play. The winning score of 30 points was posted on Monday when Owen Quigley played the 12 holes in a tremendous 30 points. This was well challenged during the week but wasn't to be beaten. The nearest to Owen was Frank Darrer on 28 points with Paul McGee a point further back. Kevin O'Donnell was in 4th spot. The leading qualifier was Pat O'Shea on 57 points matched by Kieran Ryan but Pat's 31 points on July 23rd was enough to take the leading qualifier spot. Thanks to the generosity of Woodlock Scaffolding for their sponsorship of this very successful summer series.

Professional's Prize: As club pro David Ryan prepares to leave the club and take up duties at East Cork Golf Club, he will host the Professional's Prize on Sunday next. David has done a great job in his time at the club and we wish him well in the future. We thank David for his sponsorship of Sunday's event.
