The Texaco Garages Sponsored Competition

The Ryder Cup did not stop the members coming out in force to play in the Texaco sponsored singles stableford competition played on Saturday and Sunday last and it was that man again, Liam Cooney – who has had a wonderful year – who had the winning score of 41 points, just pipping Billy Bergin by one. Liam was not up to his best on the outward nine which he covered in six over par for 19 points but he ‘opened the shoulders’ on the back nine, starting with a birdie on ten and then was fully consistent throughout the remaining eight holes and scored 22 points on the back nine for his 41 total. While Billy Bergin scored on all of the eighteen holes he will rue the opportunities that he had on 7, 10 and 11 where he had single points. The gross was won by Liam Phelan who had a level par back nine to see him just doing enough to hold on to the prize and in third place was John Kidd who had 39 points whose back nine saw him through.

Results – Saturday/Sunday - Open Singles Stableford

1st	Liam Cooney (14)	41pts
2nd	Billy Bergin (12)	40pts
Gross	Liam Phelan (3)	34pts B9
3rd	John Kidd (13)	37pts B9

All Ireland Junior Cup Semi Finals & Finals

It’s been a long wait since they won the Munster Final of the Junior Cup and they have been practicing very hard since then but the long wait is over and next Saturday, the Team, under the guidance of Keith Norris, Paul McGarry and Nigel Foran take on the best in Ulster to see which of them can make it through to the Final on Sunday morning. It is expected that a large crowd of supporters will travel to Thurles on Saturday and hopefully again on Sunday and we wish them the best of luck.
