

CLONMEL GOLF CLUB

Men's Notes

Maher's Londis CYP: The opening event in the Maher's Londis Choose Your Partner series finished on Friday last. The 4 ball better ball was won by Nigel Foran and Emmy Pyke with 33 points beating Richie Whelan and Kevin Pyke by a single point. The CYP series got off to a great start with a large entry. On Saturday last the 2nd event, a 2-man champagne scramble got under way and again this received excellent support from the members. This scramble will continue until Friday. There are valuable points to be gained each week and while the leading 4 pairs (and equal 4th) pick up the bonus points each week players receive a point for entry (up to a maximum of 2 per week) these points will prove vital in deciding the top 40 and equals for the singles final in late March. This Saturday week 3 commences with a scotch foursomes.

Course: In the early days of January the course was saturated due to persistent heavy rain and closing the course was the only option. However, since the 13th the course has been open for play and has improved by the day. Members are enjoying much drier conditions at the moment and with the greens in excellent condition we thank our course staff for their efforts.

BRS Booking: On Saturday and Wednesday each week there are designated tee times allocated for ladies. Gents are not allowed book these slots prior to 5pm on Thursday (for Saturday slots). We ask that members refrain from booking these slots before this time as the bookings may be removed without notice.
