

Corporate Partnerships and Sponsorship Opportunities

Here is an opportunity to benefit from a partnership with Downfield Golf Club, the premier member's Golf Club in Dundee and one of the finest inland courses in Scotland.

Downfield Golf Club is set in beautiful parkland within the boundaries of the City of Dundee, was described by Paul Lawrie, Open Champion, as "one of the finest inland courses in Britain".

Combining wonderful scenery and wonderful natural wildlife, this challenging and beautifully presented golf course offers a truly enjoyable experience for all golfers, regardless of ability.

The course played host to the first ever Scottish Open, the 1999 and 2007 Open Final Qualifying, the British Seniors Open Qualifying, Scottish Amateur Championship and R&A Women and Girls Home Internationals.

The spacious Clubhouse overlooks the course, has a large bar, a comfortable and welcoming lounge area with seating for up to 100, and a separate dining area for up to 40 guests.

With circa 500 members regularly playing, 300 other members, 5000 plus visitors annually and very strong links with well-known business partners - all tending to be decision-makers falling into the upper socio-economic groups, Downfield Golf Club provides a high profile and lucrative mutually beneficial opportunity.
