

CLONMEL GOLF CLUB

Men's Notes:

Professional's Prize: A huge crowd participated in Sunday's Professional's Prize. In lovely October sunshine over 100 members played in David Ryan's Prize. There was some excellent scoring with Martin Kane leading the way with a fantastic 42 points. James Dunne's round of 40 points secured him 2nd spot while Denis Buckley led a group of 3 players with Edgar Lonergan and Tommy Power all on 39 points. Jack Alton took the best gross with 35 points. Well done to the winners and in particular our winner Martin Kane whose score of 42 points represented a two under par total which included 5 birdies. The large turnout was truly fitting as our professional David Ryan is in his final week at the club. The men's committee would like to wish David well as he takes up position nearer home at East Cork Golf Club.

Bulmers Open Singles Final: The decision to defer the Bulmers Open singles from the previous weekend was vindicated as the weather played its part on Saturday last. After a summer of qualifying where large numbers were the norm on most qualifying days 41 finalists qualified for the final. A round of 38 points from Liam Phelan was the winning score. Brian Gleeson claimed 2nd spot a point further back with Billy Greene on 36 taking 3rd place narrowly edging out Davy Hallinan on a countback. Peter Gaffney's 30 points was good enough for the best gross prize. Our sincere thanks to Bulmers for their continued support for this event over many years. This year's event was expanded from a single day a week to a twice weekly event with a few added rounds on Sundays. This helped boost the numbers greatly and enhanced the competition.

Open Singles: An open singles took place last week with John Kidd coming out on top with a fine 40 points on Saturday last. Jack Alton beat Gus Grace into 2nd spot on a countback with both players scoring 38 points. Billy Hewitt's 30 points gross score took the best gross prize.

Player Of The Year Coming Tight Finish: The Player Of The Year is down to the last two events. On this Saturday, the Kevin O'Leary Motors Autumn Stableford will be the penultimate event with the Pavilion Cup following as the last event. Current leader in the series Aaron Kelly will be hoping to see off his rivals over the next two weeks but with John O'Brien, Brian Gleeson and others breathing down his neck this race is certainly not yet run.
