

CLONMEL GOLF CLUB

Men's Notes

Bulmers Weekly Qualifiers: This week sees us just one spot away from having 40 plus qualifiers in the "Bulmers Summer Open Series" 39 players on 36 points or better. A visitor Nicky Grace from Williamstown off 24 had 41 Pts. "Bosca de liathróidí" on its way to Nicky and well most likely see new back in the autumn to contest the final with 41 Pts. The 36's I'm not so sure only time will tell. All to play for thanks again to Bulmers for the sponsorship.

Junior Golf Monday 4th July: Ned Brophy's Captains prize to juniors was hotly contested with Kevin Barry coming out on top with a whopping 49 pts off 29 handicap, 'Not for long more I think'. Runner up with 45 pts, off a 23 handicap Cianan Power. Third spot goes to Mathew Buckley off 18 handicap, with 36 pts. Well done to all competitors and to Pat & Team for keeping operation streamlined and in good order each and every Monday.

The Junior Golf Programme continues as normal Monday 11th of July with the usual 8.30 kick off with a singles and team golf for the juniors...

Club Match Play Competitions: This year's Contenders in the Paddy Murray Final Peter Gaffney & John Perry are waiting to play Either Tommy & Mikey Power or Richie Brannigan & Micky McArdle. Best of luck to all.

In Singles Match-play "The Donoghmore-Cup" were down to last 16 to be completed by the 31st of July. "So, Chop-Chop". We're hoping to have this entire 64-man event wrapped up by mid-September, so we need to keep the pressure on.

"Mr Ned Brophy" Captains Prize Saturday 09th of July:

The Pinnacle contest of every golfer and every golfing Calendar has to be the "Captains Prize" mid-July sun blazing in the sky it doesn't get any better the golf course itself in shape of its life. One hundred and eighty contestants with the first ball in the air at 6am last man off the tee at 2.50pm. All wrapped up at 7.30 cards checked and winners notified.

Mr. Patrick Phelan Snr (35) with a net score of 60 Nett was kingpin on the day.

Runner up spot went to George Mitchell (30) with a fine 64 Net which would win 9 out of 10 captain prizes but unfortunately for George it was Pat's Day.

Best Gross Golfer on the day was James Cleary (1) had a sub-par score of 70 gross super shooting I'm sure you all agree. Hotter than the day itself!

Third place went to Billy Hewitt (7) had a 65 Nett, which arguably on another day could also be the winning score.

Fourth and Fifth places went to Kevin O'Donnell (19) & Barry McCord (15) had the best two 66's of which there were many 66nets in on a day when the scoring was really 'Hot' like the day itself I have never seen so many 66's, 67's, 68's 69's not featuring on "Captains Day" on the first quick check at 2.30pm Saturday afternoon we had more or less eliminated 69's and 70's on the first count.

Past Captain's Prize went to the go to man in the club Mr. Donagh Dougan (18) with a 68Nett.

Top Senior's Prize went to Mr. Paddy Fitzgerald (14) with a 68 Nett.

Best Front & Back nine holes went to Liam Maunsell (23) & John Butler (22) both shooting 31 Nett.

Prize giving kicked off at 9.30 sharp. President' Shay Bannon heaped plenty of praise on the Course staff, Catering Staff and all behind the scenes to make these days really special. He also thanked Ned for his great work as 'Captain' of men's committee. And congratulated all the competitors and of course the very worthy winners. A Great night was had by all...!
