Halifax West End Golf Club

Lifestyle Membership

starting from £370.00

Lifestyle Membership at West End is about promoting golf for the modern player who may have family commitments, a hectic working life, or other sporting interests.

Lifestyle Membership is designed for the golfer who would like to play in competitions and have an official handicap but cannot commit to play on a regular basis.

With Lifestyle Membership you will enjoy all the benefits you would expect from an exceptional private members' golfing environment but without the annual costs usually associated with a traditional club.

Benefits.

- No joining fee.
- Enter over 50 Club Competitions (Exemptions Apply).
- Fully maintained Official Congu Handicap.
- Pay for the amount of golf you want to play.
- All the benefits of a private members club inc. a Members Bar Card offering 15% off drinks & opportunity to attend all social events.
- Affiliations Fees to English Golf Union / Yorkshire Golf Union / Halifax & Huddersfield Union of Golf Clubs + Insurance Costs.
- Opportunity to upgrade to Full Membership at any time.

The Scheme

Terms & Conditions

- Initial payment of £370 runs for one year, payment must be made in full. Renewal date is the anniversary date of joining the club.
- The initial payment includes a Lifestyle Membership Fee of £80, £15 Union Fees and £275 golf credits that are put on a swipe card.
- Golf credits will be deducted for every game played. The value of credits deducted will depend on when the game is played, for example higher credits for a round in summer than in winter. See enclosed table.
- Top up of 100 credits can be bought at any time during the year for a cost of £100.
- Golf Credits can only be used for golf, not for purchases of any item in the Pro Shop, buggies, competition fees, bar or restaurant.
- Golf Credits are not transferable to another member or for guest's fees.
- Unused credits can be carried on to the following year.
- Lifestyle members must report to the Pro Shop, or bar if the Pro shop is closed, to register before playing on EVERY occasion. If both are closed then you must report after your round. Failure to do so will result in a first warning letter and the appropriate credits deducted from their card. Should a second situation occur then all credits will be forfeited and membership terminated.
- Lifestyle members are entitled to an official Congu Handicap.
- Entry to all competitions (exemptions apply – list of these are given)
- Representation of the club in friendly matches only. Away matches no golf charge. Home matches relevant credits.
- Lifestyle members may play with guests who will be entitled to play at Members rates.
