

Langley Park Golf Club

Dress Code

Members and guests are respectfully asked to observe the Club's dress code. Whilst Langley Park Golf Club is a long-established member's club, we operate a dress policy commensurate with a modern-day golf club. This can be summarised as follows:

On the Course

- Recognised golf attire is required for all players, this includes golf branded roll neck tops and hoodies.
- Sports shirts (such as football shirts, rugby shirts, T shirts) are not permitted
- Trousers such as denim jeans, cargo pants, combat trousers or tracksuits are not acceptable
- Golf shoes with spikes or dimples are required on the course
- Hats, if worn, should not be worn back-to-front
- Appropriate golf socks, which if visible, are predominantly white in colour
- Men's shirts should be recognised golfing attire, with either long or short sleeves and a collar and are to be tucked in to trousers or shorts
- Men's shorts should be knee length and tailored
- Ladies sleeveless shirts are permitted but must have a collar and may be worn outside shorts etc if so designed.
- Ladies skorts, dresses, skirts and capri pants are permitted

Clubhouse and Terrace

Smart casual attire (which includes smart denim) is permitted at all times except when there is a specific dress code for a function.

Men may wear closed-toe boat shoes or loafers without socks and smart, clean trainers are permitted

The following are not permitted in the clubhouse:

- Trousers such as cargo pants, combat trousers or tracksuits
- Beach style shorts
- T-shirts and team sports shirts, including rugby shirts
- Hats
- Wet or muddy golf wear
- Golf shoes, including those with soft spikes
- Flip Flops
