

CLONMEL GOLF CLUB

Men's Notes

Tesco Easter Hamper: Over halfway through the Tesco Easter Hamper and the competition for the various category prizes is still wide open. A large entry has seen keen competition in all three categories but it is still all to play for in the final few days.

CV Financial Open Fourball: Saturday next 9th of April is first day of the CV Financial Open Fourball which will run until Friday 15th. Thank you to Ian Cooke at CV Financial for his kind sponsorship of this event.

Club Teams: It's the time of year when our teams are preparing for competition. Notices are on the board inviting players to register their interest in playing in the Junior Cup or Jimmy Bruen panels. Those interested should register their interest as trial games will be commencing very soon in all teams.

Back To 18 Hole Events: The CV Financial Open Fourball commencing on Saturday will be the first 18-hole event of the year. The 11th hole will revert back to a par 4. Placing will remain for a little while longer but hopefully we will be back to full rules in the coming few weeks. Please note that entries to the Tesco Easter Hamper will close at 3pm on Friday. This is to allow the 11th hole to be changed to a par 4 ahead of Saturday.

Condolences

It is with sadness that we note the passing of Paddy Wall, long-standing member of the Club. Paddy played on many winning teams over the years to include the 1978 All-Ireland winning Junior Cup team and the 1988 All-Ireland winning Jimmy Bruen Team and was a great supporter of the Mixed competitions. Paddy was also an active member of the Lotto Committee. We extend our condolences to Noel Wall and the Wall family who have been associated with Clonmel Golf Club for many years. To his many golfing friends, we extend our sympathies. May Paddy rest in peace.
