
Airdrie Golf Club has signed the R&A Women in Golf Charter!

Our club has committed to:

- ✓ Adopting equality of membership
- ✓ Making the switch to peak tee-times available to female members e.g Saturday mornings
- ✓ Staging male and female competitions on the same day
- ✓ Increasing female representation on your board and/or committee
- ✓ Implementing recruitment initiatives targeting women and girls, such as Get into Golf and ThisGirlGolfs
- ✓ Supporting the National Women and Girls Golf Week campaign and raising the profile of your own club's activities to address perceptions of women's golf
- ✓ Promoting volunteering opportunities for women and girls within your club
- ✓ Increasing visibility of female and family-oriented imagery within your clubhouse and on your marketing channels e.g. website and social media
- ✓ Committing to increasing your female membership within your business plan
- ✓ Supporting Solheim Cup activities during 2019
- ✓ Encouraging more young people to be involved in the running of your golf club e.g. Young Ambassador or Young Person's Panel

Andrew McKinlay, CEO Scottish Golf

Airdrie Golf Club's signatures

Friday, May 3, 2019
