

Ladies Section – Captains Update – March

CAPTAINS DRIVE IN 3rd March

Despite the 'inclement' weather, the drive was a great success. Thank you to everyone who turned out to see in the new golf season and who sent their best wishes on the day. Very much appreciated.

TEAMS

Hard luck to Anne Ryan and the ladies junior foursomes team who put in a valiant effort against Gowran Park in Enniscorthy 24th. Next year ladies. A format worth practicing over the winter!

Next up are:

CHALLENGE CUP v Borris in Mount Wolesley on Saturday 13th April at 3pm

MINOR CUP v Bunclody in Courtown on Sunday 14th April at 2pm

IRISH MIXED v Wicklow (home & away) on Sunday 28th April, times tba

Please come out and support your teams. It gives everyone a lift!!

CLUB MIXED MATCH PLAY

The first-round matches have been announced with some definite crackers!

Full details on the club website, Facebook and club notice boards. 28 teams entered.

Well done Lady Pres. Curley and best of luck to all involved.

WEEKLY COMPETITIONS

We are now playing 18-hole competitions. You may only play in the weekly 18-hole competition once. From 25th March 18-hole singles will be qualifying for handicap.

9 hole play anytime competition is open to all ladies and is a great way to get back to golf after the winter break or for those starting out.

Well done to the clubhouse committee who launch their Friday 9 & Dine on April 19th. A 9-hole comp. followed by fish and chips or lasagne and salad for just €15 and why not bring a visitor at just €18.

LADY CAPTAINS AWAY TRIP

It's still not too late! contact Sinead on 087 6569756 to sign up.

COURSE UPDATE

The front bunker on 5 is being removed and is GUR while work continues.

The very best of luck to everyone as the golf season gets underway proper. Here's to high temperatures and low scores.

Yours in golf,

Sinead
