

CLONMEL GOLF CLUB

Men's Results:

Vice Captain's Prize: On Saturday next we have the Vice Captain's (Pat Quinlan) prize. We wish Pat the very best and we look forward to a really good entry. This is the only competition of the year which is run over 27 holes. This produces some excellent golf each year and by the time the 9- hole play-off is completed the winner will have earned his victory. The prize giving for the club classic will be held on Saturday night prior to the Vice Captain's prizegiving. All club members and friends are invited to the club on Saturday evening for the prizegiving and the entertainment afterwards.

Paddy Murray Cup: The final of The Paddy Murray Cup was played on Saturday last with Brian Mclean and Tony Norris taking on Kevin Corry and Michael McSweeney. In a closely fought match McClean and Norris edged it on the 17th. Well done to both pairings on producing a really good final and congratulations to the winners. This competition was played in a tighter time frame than previous years and this proved a success. The players are to be complimented on adhering to the deadlines and well done to Donnacha Doyle who as co-ordinator kept the competition running.

Donoghmore Cup: All first-round games are now played and again thanks to all players for reaching this weekend's deadline. 2nd round games are to be played by the end of June. There are some interesting match ups in this round.

Club Classic: The club classic ran over the weekend with a large entry. Members really supported the event which was co-ordinated by Donnacha Doyle. Thank you to all members and visitors who played in the classic.

Get Into Golf: The men's get into golf programme starts on Wednesday evening and we welcome all participants and hope they enjoy the game of golf and the friendly and welcoming atmosphere of the club. Spaces are still available.
