

CLONMEL GOLF CLUB

Men's Results:

Morrissey Cup: Almost 30 members travelled to Carrick-on-Suir last Saturday to play in the renewal of an old interclub competition which has laid dormant over many years. The weather may not have been as glorious as the days beforehand but apart a difficult wind the rain largely held off. The scores from Tommy Power and Cillian O'Donnell were outstanding with Tommy shooting 45 points and being chased home by Cillian with 43 points. Our next best score was Anthony O'Dwyer's 38 points with Seamus Morrissey and Rudolf Virdzek submitting cards of 37 points each giving Clonmel a commanding score of 200 points. However, this would fall just short of the Carrick total of 203 points with all five scorers from the host club shooting in the 40's. This was an enjoyable renewal of this event and hopefully it will become a feature of each club's fixture lists in the coming years. Our thanks to our hosts in Carrick On Suir Golf Club and to our members who travelled to play.

Club Singles: The weekend's club singles was won by Richie Whelan on a score of 37 points which was a point better than the 36 points of Tom Duggan.

Pavillion Cup: Saturday's Pavillion Cup will be keenly fought as members compete for one of the big competitions of the year. There is also some added spice with points for Player Of The Year on offer. This table is really tight so points won here will go a long way to deciding this year's POY.

Family Day: The club will run a fun day on this Sunday afternoon. This will be a day when all members and indeed non-members are invited to see what the club has to offer and let the family enjoy the facilities and the welcome. Some of the activities on the day include a nine-hole two-person ch scramble where the winners will receive the Relations Cup. Any combination of relations qualifies e.g., Parent and son or daughter, uncles, aunts, grandparents etc. Handicaps are required for this comp. Entry fee will be €10 per pair. For those relations who may not have a handicap or be totally novice to golf a 3-hole foursomes comp will be run where there will be a fun hour for those playing. Entry here is just €4 per pair. There will also be putting, chipping, nearest the hole competitions held also. A cuppa and some sandwiches will be served later in the afternoon where a prize presentation will also take place. All members are invited to this fun event and encouraged to bring along neighbours and friends and their families to enjoy our Club Family Day.

Presentations: Presentations of prizes for the Centenary Cup, Woodlock Scaffolding and Trustees Prize will take place in the clubhouse on Saturday Sept 28th.

Seniors Competition

Next Competition will take place on this Thursday September 26th.
