

Golf and Clubhouse Dress Code

Highwoods is a forward-thinking Club. We have a modern take on member/guest dress code. Whilst we may be more relaxed than some Clubs it doesn't mean we don't have standards and we expect people to respect those standards at all times, both on and off the golf courses.

Golf and Clubhouse Dress Code

Highwoods is a forward-thinking Club. We have a modern take on member/guest dress code. Whilst we may be more relaxed than some Clubs it doesn't mean we don't have standards and we expect people to respect those standards at all times, both on and off the golf courses.

Function Dress Code:

For the comfort of all, we do expect everyone to be mindful of fellow members and guests - hence the following dress code. Please do respect this.

Formal Events (eg Christmas lunches, New Year's Eve, Annual Dinner Dance)

- Dinner Jacket or lounge suit with tie

Presentation Events

- Jacket and tie for the recipients of awards (photos)
- Smart casual for everyone else

Semi-Formal Events (e.g., sit-down meals and entertainment)

- Jacket and tie optional. Smart collared shirt, or polo shirt. Trousers, chinos, or jeans
- Casual shoes, loafers, deck shoes

Informal Events (Quiz's, BBQ, Discos, etc.)

- Casual dress, collared shirt, t-shirt, chinos, jeans, tailored shorts if weather is fine
- Smart trainers. Casual shoes or deck shoes

Please do not wear:

- Ripped jeans, cargo shorts, football, or other types of sports shirts or shorts, tracksuits
- Anything scruffy or dirty
- Beach-type Flip-flops or sliders

All social events will have the appropriate dress code displayed on sign-up sheets and on the notice boards.

The Captain's decisions on any variations to the above must be respected.
