

CLONMEL GOLF CLUB

Men's Results:

Professional's Prize: Members may have questioned their eyesight as they viewed the 12th green as they drove in the club last weekend. The sight of two flags on the green was not a trick on their optical senses but a feature of the course set up for the Professional's Prize. For the competition it was decided to use two flags on each green and this was a novelty feature that was well received by members. The best score over the two days came from James Dunne with 45 points on Sunday morning. This beat Saturday's best effort which was a score of 43 points by Ned Lonergan. Well done to James on a fine score and thank you to David Ryan for his support of the Professional's Prize.

Result: 1st James Dunne (15) 45 points. 2nd Ned Lonergan (20) 43 points Gross Brendan McCarthy 32 points (B9) 3rd Liam Flynn (13) 42 points Senior Patsy Cunningham (19) 40 points.

Junior Golf Fundraiser: A fundraiser for junior golf takes place this week. Beginning on Monday last the competition runs until next Sunday. A 2- person champagne scramble open to men's, lady's and mixed pairings. This is an open event. In the last few years junior golf has been expanding and there are some really good golfers emerging from the juniors. In order to maintain and improve the junior golf section of the club funding needs to keep pace and members are asked to show their support for the juniors and those working with the juniors by playing in this event.

Night Golf: A novel event comes to the club on November 16th with night golf. This will be a nine- hole event and with the holes lit and special golf balls this should be a real novel event. Places can be booked at the Pro's shop.

AGM: The Men's Golf AGM will take place in the clubhouse on Thursday Nov 14th. All members are invited to attend.

EGM: An EGM of the Club will be held on Tuesday 29th October in the Clubhouse at 7.30pm to consider and if thought fit to pass the schedule of fees for 2020.
