

CLONMEL GOLF CLUB

Condolences:

It is with sadness that we note the tragic passing of our dear member Toddy O'Brien. Toddy joined the club in 1991 and served as Hon Secretary of the Men's committee for a long number of years giving great service to the Club. He was a true clubman, always ready to lend his support to any new project e.g. BRS setup etc. He was a constant supporter of all our Club teams throughout the years, always with a camera on hand to record these events. He will be sadly missed by us all here especially his playing partners Sean Callaghan, John Bolger and Donal Ryan.

Our deepest condolences to his partner Annette, step-sons Alan and Paul, step-daughter Lea-Anne, brother Murray, sister Winnie, sons, daughters and his extended family and his many friends including his golfing friends.

Choose Your Partner: The popular Choose Your Partner series commenced on Sunday morning with a 2-man champagne scramble. There was a good entry and this competition runs until Friday next. On Saturday round 2 commences with a 4 ball better ball.

Club Singles: A club singles over 12 holes was run in the week leading into the Choose Your Partner series. Tommy Power left everyone else in his wake with a magnificent score of 32 points. A card of 11 pars and a birdie was great shooting by Tommy and he was a clear 6 points ahead of Billy Byrne in 2nd place. Recent prize winners will be contacted this week.

Right Of Way On Course: At this time of year the competitions are being run over 12 holes so in order to keep play flowing those playing the competition course have the right of way on the course.

Table Quiz: A general knowledge table quiz will be held in the clubhouse on Friday Jan 31st. All members are asked to support this club fundraiser which will be a fun night and while it will be a quiz night the emphasis will be on the fun element of the night. Tables of 4 will cost €20.
