Notes for Organisers of Visiting Societies

The following notes are to help ensure that your visit to Walmer & Kingsdown Golf Club is enjoyable.

1. On arrival, introduce yourself to the Club Professional and Steward to confirm numbers and tee times.
2. Please ensure that your members are ready to play at the correct time to avoid over-running booked tee times.
3. Ensure your members are aware of the etiquette of golf and play at a reasonable pace. Please do not put all slower golfers together.
4. If not already ordered, bacon rolls, coffee and cooked breakfasts are available from 0800 hours. Please phone the Steward in advance to book.
5. Food ordered in advance WILL be charged for the numbers booked, unless 24hrs notice is given.
6. For larger bookings, a halfway hut may be available to serve drinks and bacon/sausage rolls. Again, please book in advance through the Secretary.

Dress Rules

On the course acceptable golfing attire must be worn at all times, if in doubt please ask in the Pro Shop. Specifically, jeans, trainers, football shirts, t shirts & cargo shorts are not permitted. In the clubhouse smart casual dress is the minimum requirement. Trainers and soiled golfing attire are not permitted. A jacket and tie is required in the restaurant after 1900 hours. The clubhouse is a non-smoking area.

Property

Walmer & Kingsdown G.C. do not accept any responsibility for loss or damage to cars or other property sustained by visitors on Club premises.

Slow play

We are pleased to welcome Societies and endeavour to accommodate their requested tee-times. Organisers are requested to remind players to always keep up with the game ahead and play at a reasonable pace.

Conduct

In submitting this form and booking our facilities, you are agreeing to comply with our Club Code of Conduct, a copy of which is on display in the Clubhouse and available from our office.
