

CLONMEL GOLF CLUB

Men's Notes

The weather again proved our downfall over recent days and with steady fall of snow on Wednesday followed by some torrential rain the course has been closed in recent days. Let's hope that the coming days see an improvement and we can get back to the fairways soon.

Maher's Londis CYP: Things are coming down to the wire in the Maher's Londis Choose Your Partner series. Saturday last was supposed to see the start of the final qualifying round of the CYP. Our Aggregate Fourball weekend action was lost to the rain. The fixtures committee hope that with bank holidays on both Thursday and Friday next that the weather may help us out to get the required entrants to validate the final qualifier. If this does not happen the current leader board (attached) will determine the qualifiers.

In the previous qualifier an Odds & Evens saw Donald Binchy and Michael Halley take the top spot and 7 points each. Winners Donald Binchy & Michael Halley (46pys), 2nd Joe O'Shea & Richie Brannigan (45pys), 3rd Jimmy Hewitt & Kevin Corry (44pts) 4th Donnacha Doyle & Michael McSweeney, Joe Hawkins & Billy Byrne, Des Morrissey & Neil O'Reilly all on 43pts.

Fixtures: As the Mahers Londis CYP heads towards a final our fixtures plan sees our first singles event of the spring with The Tom Lambe Open Singles commencing on Saturday next (19th) and running until Thursday 24th.

From Friday 25th to Sunday 27th Mahers Londis CYP Final (No re entry)

Also starting on Friday 25th and running until Friday 8th April is the Tesco Easter Hamper Singles.

A huge thank you to all our sponsors.

(All fixtures are subject to change)

So hopefully we will see ever improving weather and course conditions and we can play our packed programme of fixtures and enjoy the golf.

Junior Golf: On Sunday 20th at 1pm there will be a 12-hole singles stableford competition for juniors with a 6-hole scramble for beginners / cadet juniors. Kindly sponsored by David Barry.
