Principle Terms and Conditions of Practice Membership.

1. Practice Membership enables the member to use the short practice range, practice bunker, chipping green and practice putting areas with their own golf balls. They also have access to the Driving Range facility where range balls are paid at Club Rate. No member is allowed to retrieve balls from the Driving Range.
2. Practice members may use the Clubhouse and its facilities including the bars, dining room and snooker room.
3. Practice Members may attend the Club's social functions, Bridge, dinners and any meals organised by the caterer for Club Members. Certain formal functions such as Annual Dinners, Professional's Day, Presidents Day and Turkey Night are confined to Golfing memberships.
4. Practice members may introduce guests to use the Clubhouse and will be responsible the behaviour and any charges incurred by the guest.
5. Practice members are not allowed on the course unless the appropriate green fee has been paid for in advance the Professional's Shop.
6. Practice members cannot introduce non-members as guests to use the course.
