

CLONMEL GOLF CLUB

Men's Notes

Wynne & Associates Open Ch Scramble: Although Friday was lost due to course works the Open Ch Scramble went ahead on Saturday with an entry of over 100 players the competition was as enjoyable as it was competitive.

With 2 to score on each of the first 15 holes and three to count on the last 3 holes a score of less than 100 was not going to cut the mustard. As it turned out the two winning scores of 106 and 107 points were well ahead of the 100 mark. Pat O'Shea, Conal Murphy, Eddie Hewitt and Noel O'Brien were in excellent form posting 106 which on other days would be good enough but Adrian Johnson, Gareth Bourke, Tom Bourke and Dermot O'Callaghan went 1 better to claim the win. Well done to the prize winners and thanks to all who played. We wish to thank Wynne and Associates for their outstanding support for us in 2022.

Texaco Open Singles: This weekend we play the Texaco Open Singles on Saturday and Sunday. This is usually a popular weekend and competition and we look forward to the renewal of this event. Thanks to all at Dillons Garage for this kind sponsorship.

Relation's Cup Postponed: Due to the adverse weather warnings on Sunday last led to the postponement of The Relation's Cup which will now be rescheduled in the coming weeks

Sanding Programme: The scheduled annual sanding programme of the greens got underway on Monday last. Unfortunately, the work was hampered by some torrential rain on Monday afternoon. This in turn slowed down the completion of the works. Great work by the grounds staff had the course opened for the weekend and although the greens were a little unpredictable due to the hollow tining they were very playable and this is due to this hard work. This sanding is a necessary programme and is central to course maintenance. Well done to the staff for a really good job in difficult circumstances.

Course Etiquette: Members are asked to adhere to course etiquette at all times. Repair pitch marks and divots, leave a bunker as you would hope to find it. And use the practice area only for practice. Avoid slow play and respect others using the course. Let's all enjoy the golf course.
