

CLONMEL GOLF CLUB

Men's Results:

Pavilion Cup: Following an injury lay off for most of the year Edgar Lonergan returned to the fairways in recent weeks and on Saturday last Edgar put together an outstanding round of 40 points off a handicap of 6 to win The Pavilion Cup. Well done to Edgar who covered the 18 holes in 2 over par. Brian Prendergast's 39 points was enough to secure 2nd spot. The full result: 1st Edgar Lonergan (6) 40 pts

2nd Brian Prendergast (12) 39 pts

Gross Jack Alton 33 pts

3rd Billy Hewitt (5) 37 pts

Seniors Prize Tom Byrne (7) 36pts

Club Singles: The club singles played on Sunday saw a return to the winner's enclosure for Jack Alton who shot 37 points to take the prize.

Family Day: The club's Family Funday attracted a good crowd on Sunday with the weather smiling down on the event. In the inaugural Relation's Cup, there was a tight battle over the nine holes which saw Johnny Quinn and Joey Hawkins record an impressive 26 points to pip Billy and Tom Lambe who were a point back on 25. The putting competition that went on throughout the afternoon saw a playoff required to settle the adult's event. Joey Hawkins had secured the prize for the under 12s, but Emmy Pyke, Billy Byrne and Andrew Gartlan had to play a nine-hole play-off to decide the adult competition. It was Emmy who ground down his opponents with three single putts in the nine holes. Over in the nearest the pin competition Joey Hawkins again led the under 12 event for much of the day when he went to 35 inches early in proceedings. Brendan McCarthy held the lead in the adult's section when he went to within 10 inches of the flag stick. This was good enough until the very end of proceedings when Pat Quinlan aced to claim the winners spot to large cheers. Again, late in the day young Gilles Kearney almost aced to take the prize for the under 12 section. There was a three-hole foursomes competition held for players not qualified for the relations cup and Emmet Corcoran and his nephew Jack Dukelow took first prize in this fun event. Well done to our captains Andrew and Deidre and the sub-committee on organizing a lovely event.

Texaco Weekend: This weekend thanks to Andrew Dillon of Texaco Garage we run the Texaco singles which will be played over both Saturday and Sunday.
