

CLONMEL GOLF CLUB

Men's Notes:

On a Week where football might be coming home ☺ Golf certainly came home in Clonmel.

With the revival of "Open week" and by every yardstick was a huge success with a great mix of visitors and members!! All were complimentary of the challenges on the Greens, the variation of the holes on the course and the competition formats.

I spoke to quite a few visitors over the week and each and everyone couldn't get over the value for money Clonmel Golf Club has to offer. I think the word is finally getting out about how good we have it in Clonmel Golf club.

Well done to the captain on a great selection of competitions and to course chairman & staff for a challenging and exquisitely presented Golf Course.

The Week opened up with a well sponsored & supported Wynne & Associates Open Singles Followed by Wynne & associates Open Four-Ball. Thanks again to JP for two Great Competitions.

Then we had the novel Blue/Green singles presented by John Kennedy Motors which had 100 plus entries for a midweek competition and fabulous scoring to boot with John Perry coming out on top with a massive 45 pts followed by Mikey Power with another 45pts. Gross was picked up by Dermot Maher with 34 pts. In Fourth with the long-awaited charge of the young guns Michael Buckley with an eye watering 43pts. Visitors Prize going to PJ. Mooney 39pts.
