

James Erskine

HEAD PROFESSIONAL

James spends the majority of his coaching time working with players in his long-term player development programmes, this now unfortunately leaves little time for individual lessons.

James has developed a reputation for helping aspiring players achieve their goals via a variety of tried and trusted methods from over 20 years in the professional game. He has had some notable success from Junior International to European tour level players. For more information on his long-term development programmes and availability please contact him directly.
