Club Teams Fundraiser: A competition to support our club teams for 2019 began on Friday last and this two-man champagne scramble continues until this Friday. All members are encouraged to take part and make your contribution to supporting our clubmates who will be representing the club in the coming months.

Member's Prize: This Saturday the member's prize takes place and is the first Player of The Year event. This is a prestigious competition with a top prize of €400 value is eagerly anticipated by members each year. The competition will take place over 18 holes of stableford. There are still some spots on BRS for anyone who is planning to play.

Osbourne Osteopaths: Next Sunday we play a singles stableford which is kindly sponsored by Osbourne Osteopaths. Representatives of Osbourne's will be in the clubhouse on Saturday to offer members free advice on the benefits of their services to a golfer.

Club Teams: There are notices on the board in the clubhouse seeking players who are interested in playing in the Jimmy Bruen and Pierce Purcell teams. Those interested should put their details on the sheet as the various selectors will be drawing up their panels very soon.

The Course: Thanks to Michael O'Neill and the hard-working grounds staff the course is in magnificent condition at the moment and members are asked to play their part by replacing divots and repairing pitch marks as they play.

Buggies: The club has 5 buggies now available for hire at a fantastic rate of just €10 for members and €15 for visitors. As there are currently just five of these buggies available early booking is advisable. Contact Aine to book for next weekend.

Club Seniors:

Next outing will take place on this Thursday, 11th April from 10.30am.
